

iMake News!

Welcome to our new publication iMake News!

This electronic publication is designed, to help you... the operator of an RTO, to cope with the ever growing amount of compliance and paperwork issues surrounding the operations of an RTO.

This document is designed, in part, to assist with 'Best Practice'!

Please feel free to share this with your fellow RTO colleagues and others that may benefit from the information contained in this document.

RTO Health... How is your's?

With all of the changes in the VET sector how are you and your RTO keeping up with the changes?

Have you been informed of or are you expecting an Audit?

How is your Qualification Validation/Moderation process going?

When was the last time you looked at continuous improvement?

When was the last time your TAS was validated?

Do you feel like you are drowning in paperwork, are you keep up?

or

Just want to make sure that everything is going well... that your 'Best Practice' is in place...

iMake Academy of Training is here to Help!

Our professional and passionate approach to ensuring that your students receive the best, consistent and positive outcomes to training, drives us to make sure that your RTO performs at its absolute Best!

All this, while maintaining compliance!

Assessment tools

Did you know?

There are 5 Main Components of Assessment Tools.

Do your assessment tools cover all 5 areas correctly?

If you answered 'No' or 'Not sure', then you need to call us on the below number.

Don't leave it until you receive a knock on the door for an audit... that could be too late!
